Go Ahead... Get Exotic with TANGERES!

Atlas Homewares' Most Exotic Collection of Knobs and Pulls Yet!

Your Passport To Style

(Glendale, CA. August 2004) Tired of your ho-hum cabinetry and furniture -- but still not ready to pop for something new? Tangeres, Atlas Homewares' latest and most exotic decorative hardware collection is your passport to style.

The Moorish-inspired decorative hardware series of knobs and pulls is distinguished by rich jewel tones and an earthy silver overlay. Part of Atlas Homewares boutique line, Tangeres looks as though it were crafted by an artisan and haggled for at an open air market in Marrakech.

Available in four sparkling jewel tones—ruby, crystal, emerald and blue—Tangeres' artisan style is the perfect complement to today's popular Mediterranean decors. Tangeres lends its exotic, imported touch to the kitchen, bath, anywhere in the home at a bargain. Suggested retails are $7.50 for a small knob, $8.50 for a large one and $9.75 for a pull. So choose a size, pick a color and give your grandmother's antique desk or that boring kitchen cabinetry a boost!

Consumers can shop on-line for the decorative hardware to suit their design challenge or style at www.atlashomewares.com, the single largest on-line supplier of artistic knobs and pulls.

Atlas Homewares, based in Glendale, California, designs and markets a "forward thinking" collection of decorative hardware including knobs, pulls, bath and spa ensembles, house numbers and switch plates. Headed by style director Adrienne Morea – the company has earned nationwide attention for its progressive design style and the Atlas products are the new "object of desire" for the home. The fashion hardware company's lines are available in EXPO Design Center, The Great Indoors, Restoration Hardware and upscale kitchen and bath showrooms nationwide.
